INTRODUCTION

The Board of Elections (“Board”) has revised the Campaign Finance Manual to provide candidates, officeholders and committees with the most recent changes in campaign finance law and guidance on how to comply with campaign finance disclosure and filing requirements set forth in the Rhode Island Campaign Contribution and Expenditures Reporting Act (“Act”). [See 17-25].

This manual is designed to serve as a resource for campaign finance requirements. The Board has made every effort to ensure the accuracy of the information in this publication, but is not liable for errors or omissions of content. Where your legal rights are involved, do not rely on this manual. Instead, review the law yourself or consult your attorney.

If you have any problems or questions not resolved by this manual, please call a member of the campaign finance staff at (401) 222-2345; meet with a member of the campaign finance staff in person; or e-mail the Board at campaignfinance@elections.ri.gov.

For the most up-to-date version of this manual and all forms, please visit the Rhode Island Board of Elections website at www.elections.ri.gov.

1.0 PERSONS AND ENTITIES SUBJECT TO THE CAMPAIGN FINANCE LAWS

1.1 Candidates, Political Action Committees and Political Party Committees

Rhode Island state law requires all candidates for public office, political action committees and political party committees to file periodic reports of campaign contributions and expenditures, even if for such a period, contributions and expenditures shall equal zero. The method by which these contributions and expenditures are reported is determined by the amount of funds raised or expended.

1.1.1 Candidate

A Candidate is defined as any person who undertakes any action whether preliminary or final, which is necessary under the law to qualify for nomination for election or election to public office. This would include receiving any contribution or making any expenditure or giving consent for any other person to receive a contribution or make an expenditure to bring about a nomination or election to any public office even if such office is unknown at that time. A person may be considered a candidate for public office even though such person has not declared himself or herself to be a candidate for public office.

[§17-25-3(a); 17-25-11]

For the purposes of the Act, this shall not include candidates for political party offices, which shall mean a state, city, town, ward, representative or senatorial district committee office of a political party, or a delegate to a political party convention or any similar office, but shall include a candidate who has been elected to public office. [§17-25-3(h)], but shall include a candidate who has been elected to public office.

Withdrawal or termination of candidacy does not relieve the candidate from keeping accurate records and making necessary reports through the time of termination of candidacy or dissolution of the fund, whichever is the later.

1.1.2 Political Action Committee

A Political Action Committee (PAC) is any group of two (2) or more persons who accepts any contributions to be used for advocating the election or defeat of any candidate or candidates. Only PACs that have accepted contributions from fifteen (15) or more persons in amounts of ten dollars ($10.00) or more within an "election cycle" shall be permitted to make contributions, and said PACs must make contributions to at least five (5) or more non-Federal RI candidates within the same "election cycle". [See §17-25-3(10)]

- The term “election cycle” means the twenty-four (24) month period commencing on January 1 of odd number years and ending December 31 of even number years; provided, however, with respect to the public financing of election campaigns of General Officers, under §17-25-19; §17-25-20 and §17-25-25, “election cycle” shall mean the forty-eight (48) month period commencing on January 1 of odd number years and ending December 31 of even number years.
[See §17-25-3(5)]

1.1.3 Political Party Committee

The term Political Party Committee shall mean each state and municipal committee of a political party. A state committee of a political party includes the state committee of each political party and each senatorial and representative district committee. A municipal committee of a political party includes the city and town committees of each political party and each ward committee. [See § 17-12; 17-1-2(6)]

1.2 Persons Not Acting In Concert With Any Other Person Or Group-Independent Expenditures

Independent expenditures made by any “person” not otherwise prohibited by law and not acting in concert with any other person or group that exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) within a calendar year to support or defeat a candidate, are required to be reported by the person making such independent expenditure to the Board of Elections by filing a “Schedule of Independent Expenditures” (Form CF-8) and to the campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer of the candidate or political party committee on whose behalf the expenditures were made within seven (7) days of making such expenditures. The candidate or political party committee on whose behalf such expenditure was made, shall, in turn, disclose the value of such expenditures and expenses as an in-kind contribution in the campaign finance report filed by said candidate or political party committee to the Board of Elections. There is no limitation on the amount that a person, not acting in concert with any other person or group, may expend personally from such person’s own funds to support or defeat a candidate. [See § 17-25-10(b)]

- “Person” means an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, and any other organization. [See §17-25-3(9)]

Note: A “Ballot Question Advocacy and Reporting” Manual is being prepared to provide guidance on how to comply with campaign finance disclosure and filing requirements set forth in the Rhode Island Ballot Question Advocacy and Reporting Act. [See §17-25.2]

2.0 DUTIES OF A CANDIDATE

2.1 Notice of Organization

Each candidate shall file a "Notice Of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections no later than ten (10) days after the last day of filing his or her declaration of candidacy or before receiving a contribution or making an expenditure in furtherance or aid of his or her candidacy, whichever occurs first. [See §17-25-8]

The Notice of Organization shall contain:

- The name of the candidate
- Key # (if already assigned by the Board of Elections)
- Street and mailing addresses
- Contact information
- Office sought (if known at the time)
- Party affiliation, if any
- The name, address, contact information and signature of the appointed or designated campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer, signed in the presence of a notary public
- An affidavit, signed by the candidate in the presence of a notary public, in which said candidate agrees to abide by the campaign finance laws of the State of Rhode Island and the Rules and Regulations established by the Board of Elections

2.2 Appointment or Removal of Treasurers

A candidate may appoint or remove a campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer at any time. Each time a candidate appoints or removes a campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer, he or she shall file a new "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections indicating the amendment. [See §17-25-8]

A candidate may be his or her own treasurer or deputy treasurer. A candidate may also appoint multiple deputy treasurers. The names and addresses of these campaign treasurers shall also be filed on the "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1). However, a candidate who fails to designate a campaign treasurer on the "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) shall be deemed to be the treasurer by the Board of Elections. A person may also serve as the campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer for one or more candidates. [See §17-25-8]

In the event of the death, resignation or removal of a campaign treasurer, the candidate must appoint a successor as soon as practicable and shall file a new "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections within ten (10) days. If a candidate fails to file the appropriate “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) within the time frame prescribed by law, the board shall immediately deem the candidate to be the campaign treasurer until said “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1) is received by the Board. [See § 17-25-8(c)]

2.3 Responsibilities of a Candidate

Notwithstanding the appointment of a campaign treasurer, a candidate shall be responsible for any contributions accepted or expenditures made on behalf of his or her organization, as well as for any reports required to be filed or the contents and supporting documentation of the reports filed with the Board of Elections. Further, the candidate shall bear full responsibility for the activities of his or her campaign and the campaign's treasurer and deputy treasurer(s), including the payment of fines, fees or penalties. [See §17-25-13(c)]

The candidate shall bear full responsibility for notifying the Board of Elections of any changes of address by amending its “Notice of Organization” (Form CF-1), and that the failure to inform the Board of said change(s) shall not absolve the candidate of his or her responsibilities under the law or rules of the Board.

2.4 Candidates and the Rhode Island Ethics Commission

The general assembly established an independent non-partisan Ethics Commission that adopted a code of ethics including, but not limited to, provisions on conflict of interest, confidential information, use of position, contracts with government agencies and financial disclosure. All elected and appointed officials and employees of the state and local government, of boards, commissions and agencies are subject to the code of ethics. The Ethics Commission has the authority to investigate violations of the code of ethics and to impose penalties, as provided by law; and the Commission has the power to remove from office officials who are not subject to impeachment.

2.4.1 Candidate Financial Disclosure-Rhode Island Ethics Commission

In addition to the filing requirements for candidates pursuant to the Rhode Island Campaign Contributions and Expenditures Reporting Act, candidates for elective public office, except those candidates for moderator and clerk of a voting district of the cities and towns, must file a “Financial Disclosure Statement” (Form FS-1) with the Rhode Island Ethics Commission within thirty (30) days of filing declaration of their candidacy. The Commission shall grant an extension for good cause shown of not more than fifteen (15) days, provided a request for an extension is received prior to the filing deadline for the Financial Disclosure Statement. [See §36-14-16 (c)]

The Ethics Commission will forward Financial Disclosure Statement Forms to each new candidate shortly after the candidacy filing deadline.

The failure to file a Financial Disclosure Statement by a state or municipal elected or appointed official is a violation of the law and may subject the official to penalties, including fines.

The filing of the Financial Disclosure Statement with the Ethics Commission is independent of any requirements imposed upon candidates by other governmental agencies.

Additional information regarding Financial Disclosure is available on the Ethics Commission website, www.state.ri.us/ethics, or by contacting the Commission.

3.0 DUTIES OF A POLITICAL PARTY COMMITTEE

3.1 Notice of Organization

Each state and municipal committee of a political party shall, on or before January 31 in each calendar year, designate or reaffirm a Chairperson and Treasurer and shall file a "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting their names and addresses. [See §17-25-9(a)]

The Notice of Organization shall contain:

- The name of the Political Party Committee
- Key #
- Street and mailing addresses
- Contact information
- The name, address, contact information and notarized signature of the appointed, designated or reaffirmed Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer
- An affidavit signed by the Chairperson in the presence of a notary public, in which said Chairperson agrees to abide by the campaign finance laws of the State of Rhode Island and the Rules and Regulations established by the Board of Elections.

3.2 Appointment or Removal of Treasurers

The campaign treasurer of a political party committee may appoint deputy campaign treasurers as may be required. The political party committee shall file a "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting the names and addresses of all appointed deputy treasurers. [See §17-25-9(b)]

A political party committee may remove at any time its campaign treasurer. In the case of death, resignation or removal of its campaign treasurer, any committee shall appoint a successor as soon as practicable and file a "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting his or her name and address within ten (10) days of said appointment. [See § 17-25-9(c)]

3.3 Annual Report

Each state and municipal committee of a political party shall file with the Board of Elections, not later than March 1 of each year, an annual "Summary of Campaign Activity" (Form CF-2) setting forth in the aggregate all contributions received and all expenditures made during the previous calendar year, whether or not these expenditures were made, incurred, or authorized in furtherance of the election or defeat of any candidate. The treasurer of the committee or organization reporting shall certify to the correctness of each report. [See §17-25-7(b)]

4.0 DUTIES OF A POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE (PAC)

4.1 Notice of Organization

No Political Action Committee shall accept any contributions nor make any expenditure prior to filing its "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections. [See §17-25-15(a)]

The "Notice of Organization" shall contain:

1. The proposed name of the committee
2. The mailing address or addresses of the committee
3. The name, address, contact information and notarized signature of the appointed or designated treasurer or deputy treasurer
4. An affidavit signed by the Chairperson in the presence of a notary public, in which said Chairperson agrees to abide by the campaign finance laws of the State of Rhode Island and the Rules and Regulations established by the Board of Elections
5. The names and addresses of all officers of the committee
6. The identity of any candidates or offices whose election or defeat the committee intends to advocate
7. The goals and purposes of the committee, and
8. A statement indicating whether the membership and/or contributor base of the committee is derived primarily from the employees of one corporation or business entity or from one business or professional group or association or labor union, and, if so, the identity of that employer or group or association or union.

If a political action committee derives more than fifty percent (50%) of its funds from the employees, officers, directors, investors, and/or stockholders of a corporation or other business entity, the name of the political action committee must incorporate the name of that corporation or entity.

[See 17-25-15(e)]

Likewise, if a political action committee derives more than fifty percent (50%) of its funds from persons affiliated with one industry, profession, trade organization or association, or labor union, the name of the political action committee must identify that industry, profession, trade organization or association, or labor union. [See §17-25-15(e)]

No political action committee shall advocate the election or defeat of any candidate other than that set forth in its "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1), or amendment to the notice. A political action committee may amend its "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) at any time. [See §17-25-15(b)]

The Board of Elections may reject the use by a political action committee of a name that is misleading and/or does not accurately identify the membership or contributor base of the committee. [See §17-25-15(d)]

4.2 Appointment or Removal of Treasurers

Each political action committee shall appoint one treasurer before receiving any contribution or expending any money for the purpose of advocating the election or defeat of any candidate. [See §17-25-8.1(a)]

A committee may appoint or remove a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer at any time. Each time a committee appoints or removes a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, a Notice of Organization (Form CF-1) shall be filed with the Board of Elections indicating the amendment. [See §17-25-8.1(b); §17-25-8.1(c)]

In the event of death, resignation or removal of a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer, a successor must be appointed as soon as practicable and the committee shall file a new Notice of Organization (Form CF-1) within ten (10) days of the change. [See §17-25-8.1(c)]

5.0 DUTIES OF CAMPAIGN TREASURERS

5.1 Record Keeping

The treasurer or deputy treasurer, as indicated on the "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1), must file with the Board of Elections reports of contributions received and expenditures incurred in furtherance of the nomination or election of a candidate, and must continue to file reports of contributions received and expenditures incurred following the election, so long as campaign funds remain and the campaign has not filed an "Affidavit Dissolving Campaign Account" (Form CF-7) with the Board of Elections.

The campaign treasurer of each candidate seeking nomination for election or election to public office, and the treasurer of each political action committee and political party committee, shall maintain and preserve all records and supporting documentation for a period of four (4) years, commencing with the date the affidavit, notice, or report was filed. [See §17-25-11.1(a); §17-25-11.1(b)]

5.1.1 Depository Account

For all candidates, officeholders, political party committees and political action committees, the name of the depository (i.e. Bank, Credit Union) used to deposit campaign receipts and pay campaign expenses must be identified on the organization's "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1). In the event the depository changes, the Board of Elections must be notified via a new "Notice of Organization" (form CF-1) within ten (10) business days of the change. The accounting of campaign receipts and expenditures must be kept separate and distinct from any other receipts and expenditures.

5.2 Who May Receive Contributions or Expend Funds

No contribution shall be made or received, and no expenditures shall be directly made or incurred, to support or defeat a candidate except through the duly appointed campaign treasurer, or deputy campaign treasurer(s), of the candidate, political party committee, or political action committee. [See §17-25-10]

It shall be lawful for any candidate who otherwise has not been appointed treasurer or deputy treasurer for his or her own campaign, to receive contributions directly to be used for his or her own campaign.

It shall be lawful for any person who otherwise has not been appointed treasurer or deputy treasurer, to accept contributions on behalf of a candidate, political party committee or political action committee, provided said person acts as a conduit between the contributor and a candidate, or of the duly appointed campaign treasurer, or deputy treasurers of a candidate, political party committee or political action committee and at no time has discretionary control over the funds.

5.3 Resignation of a Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer

A treasurer or deputy treasurer of any campaign or committee may resign his or her position by filing a letter of resignation directly with the Board of Elections. In this case, the Board shall, within two (2) business days of the receipt of said letter, notify the candidate, or in the case of a political action committee or political party committee, the chairperson, of the treasurer's resignation. The candidate, political action committee or political party committee shall appoint a successor as soon as practicable and file a "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) with the Board of Elections documenting the new treasurer's name and address within ten (10) days of said appointment.

6.0 CAMPAIGN FINANCE REPORTS & SCHEDULES

The Rhode Island Campaign Contributions & Expenditures Reporting Act ("Act") requires that treasurers of candidates, political action committees and political party committees file reports of campaign activities with the Board of Elections ("Board") in accordance with a reporting schedule prescribed herein.

[See §17-25-11]

6.1 Persons Authorized To File

Regardless of whether a report is submitted and received at the Board, any report that is signed by someone other than the person(s) designated on the "Notice of Organization" (Form CF-1) on file at the Board shall be returned to the candidate and deemed not filed.

6.2 Campaign Finance Forms

The following is an explanation of various forms to be submitted to the Board of Elections.

Refer to Appendix A for a copy of each campaign finance form and related instructions.

Form Name	Form Number	Manner of Filing
Notice of Organization	CF-1	This form is used to register a candidate, officeholder, political party committee or PAC with the Board; and/or to appoint/designate or change a campaign treasurer and deputy treasurer(s).
Summary of Campaign Activity	CF-2	This form documents a campaign account's Beginning Cash Balance as of the beginning of a specific reporting period, total contributions and receipts received minus total expenditures and disbursements made during the same reporting period, yielding an Ending Cash Balance as of the period ending date. (Note: The Ending Cash Balance for any report ending period becomes the Beginning Cash Balance for the next following reporting period.)
Schedule of Contributions Received	CF-3	This form is used to list individual and aggregate contributions and receipts received during a specific reporting period, as reported on a Summary Campaign Activity (Form CF-2).
Schedule of Expenditures	CF-4	This form is used to list individual and aggregate expenditures and disbursements made during a specific reporting period, as reported on a Summary of Campaign Activity (Form CF-2).

Affidavit for Annual Filing Exemption	CF-5	This affidavit, when filed, exempts a campaign finance treasurer from filing the scheduled periodic reports of contributions received and expenditures made for a specific report year. Thereafter, a Summary of Campaign Activity (CF-2); a Schedule of Contributions Received (CF-3); and a Schedule of Expenditures (CF-4) must be filed no later than 30 days after the end of the reporting year to report any campaign finance activity occurring within said reporting year.
Affidavit Dissolving Campaign Account	CF-7	This affidavit, when filed, by a campaign treasurer, certifies that there are no remaining campaign funds, the campaign has completed its business and is thereby dissolved.
Schedule of Independent Expenditures	CF-8	This form is used by any person, not acting in concert with any other person or group, who has expended more than $100.00 in the aggregate within a calendar year to support or defeat a candidate.

Candidates shall be required to submit reports in the manner prescribed by the Board. Reports shall not be accepted if they are received in any manner other than as original documents, bearing original signatures, or as required, bearing notarized original signatures.

Incomplete reports or reports submitted in a manner which is not in conformance with the requirements set forth herein shall be deemed not filed.

NOTE: Copies, facsimiles and other electronically submitted forms shall be deemed not submitted.

6.3 Electronic Filing

See the ERTS User Manual for more information on electronic filing of campaign finance reports.

6.4 Reporting Schedules

The 2007 Reporting Schedule for political action committees, political party committees and for candidates and officeholders who DO NOT appear on the ballot for a primary or election, is as follows:

Candidates, Officeholders, PACs and Parties NOT Participating in a Primary or Election in 2007
Report Name	Reporting Period	Report Due By
On-Going Quarterly (1 st)	January 1 – March 31	April 30
On-Going Quarterly (2 nd)	April 1 – June 30	July 30
On-Going Quarterly (3 rd)	July 1 – September 30	October 30
On-Going Quarterly (4 th)	October 1 – December 31	January 30, 2008

Said reports shall consist of a “Summary of Campaign Activity” (Form CF-2); a “Schedule of Contributions Received” (Form CF-3) and a “Schedule of Expenditures” (Form CF-4).

Unless specified otherwise by a Filing Schedule put forth by the Board of Elections, the On-Going Quarterly reports are due within thirty (30) days following the last date of the reporting period. In a contested election, reports required to be filed before and after the primary and election are due by the date next following the last date of the reporting period.

Political action committees and political party committees are required to file On-Going reports at ninety (90) day intervals [See §17-25-11(a)(1)], provided however that a political action committee or political party committee contributing to a candidate or candidates in a contested election are deemed to be participating in said election and are thereby required to file reports in accordance with the filing schedule for candidates in an election, commencing with the first reporting period in which the contribution to the candidate or candidates in a contested election was made. [See §17-25-11(a)(2)]

Note: For campaigns involved in a primary or election in 2007, please contact the Board of Elections or visit our web site at <http://www.elections.ri.gov> for the appropriate reporting schedule.

6.4a Annual Filing Exemption

Notwithstanding the reports detailed above, the treasurer for a candidate or officeholder, political action committee or political party committee may elect to file an “Affidavit For Annual Filing Exemption” (Form CF-5), whereby said treasurer certifies that he or she will accept no contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) in the aggregate from a single source within the calendar year, including contributions or loans that a candidate may make to his or her own campaign, nor make aggregate expenditures in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) within the calendar year. If this affidavit is filed, the treasurer is exempt from filing the scheduled periodic or quarterly reports of campaign contributions and expenditures. [See §17-25-11(e)]

Moreover, any campaign having completed its business and having no remaining campaign funds will, nonetheless be considered “Active”, and required to file campaign finance reports according to a Reporting Schedule prescribed by the Board of Elections, until such time as an “Affidavit Dissolving Campaign Account” (Form CF-7) is filed by its treasurer. [See §17-25-11(c)]

Any campaign filing an “Affidavit Dissolving Campaign Account” (Form CF-7), shall, as a result, forgive as uncollectible any Loans Payable or Accounts Payable balance remaining at the time of dissolution, regardless of whether said campaign account is subsequently re-activated. (Note: Any accounts payable balance outstanding at the time a campaign is dissolved shall become the personal obligation of the candidate.)

Unless otherwise directed by the Board of Elections, a filer may amend a campaign finance report at any time in conformance with the rules and regulations specified herein.

In the event an amended report is filed for a period, it may be necessary to amend subsequent reports if there was any change to the beginning or ending cash balances.

6.5 Filing Deadlines

The deadline for the receipt of reports, other than those filed electronically using ERTS, will be 4:00 p.m. on the date the report is due. The deadline for the receipt of reports using ERTS will be 11:59 p.m. on the date the report is due. Upon the receipt of an extension request executed in conformance with the requirements stated herein, the Board will, forthwith, approve or reject said extension request and notify the filer of its decision.

a) Approval of Extension Request.

In the event an extension is approved, the report due date will be extended for the amount of days requested or as illustrated in the "Filing Extension Schedule" shown above, whichever is lesser. b) Rejection of Extension Request.

If a filer's request for an extension has been submitted and shall have been rejected, the report for which the extension was requested shall be required to be filed by the report's initial due date. A report for which an extension request was rejected shall be deemed to be delinquent upon the passing of the deadline for which the report is due. (See "Delinquent Reports")

8.0 NON-COMPLIANCE & PENALTIES

8.1 Delinquent Reports

Any report required to be filed with the Board of Elections on behalf of a candidate, officeholder, political action committee, or political party committee pursuant to §17-25 and which was not filed by the date and time required shall be deemed delinquent resulting in a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

[See §17-25-11(g)(2)]

A candidate or officeholder, political action committee or political party committee who shall have been granted a filing extension by the Board of Elections and who shall not have filed the report by the end of the extension period shall be deemed delinquent, resulting in a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

8.2 Notice Of Non-Compliance & Penalties

The Board of Elections shall send a "Notice of Non-Compliance" via certified mail to the candidate or officeholder, or in the case of a PAC or political party committee, the treasurer or chairperson, when a report has been deemed delinquent. Upon receipt of the "Notice of Non-Compliance", the candidate or officeholder, or in the case of a political action committee or political party committee, the treasurer or chairperson, shall have seven (7) days to pay the late filing fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and file the required report, provided the report is still outstanding. [See §17-25-11(g)(3)]

A candidate or officeholder, political action committee or political party committee who fails to remit payment and who fails to file the required report within seven (7) days of the receipt of the "Notice", shall be fined an additional two dollars ($2.00) per day from the date of receipt of the "Notice" until the day the report has been received by the Board and any outstanding fines paid.

Any person or entity who has been sent a Notice of Non-Compliance via certified mail and who does not claim or sign the return receipt of said Notice, will nonetheless be fined an additional two dollars ($2.00) per day, with the additional fine commencing fourteen (14) days after the date upon which the Notice of Non-Compliance was sent.

Solely for the purpose of assessing fines which are calculated on a daily basis, pursuant to §17-25-11(g)(3), and which are paid by mail, the postmark date shall be used to determine the date of receipt and the amount of the fine assessed and owed.

8.3 Payment Of Fines, Fees and Penalties

The payment of fines, fees and penalties imposed by the state board for violations of §17-25 shall be paid by the candidate, officeholder or entity against whose campaign the fines, fees and penalties have been levied. Fines, fees and penalties levied by the state board pursuant to §17-25 shall not be paid for from contributions or funds available in a campaign account. [See §17-25-13(c)]

Fines may be paid either in-person or by mail and the method of payment accepted shall be cash, check or money order only. Money orders or checks shall be made payable to: "State of Rhode Island – Internal Service Fund".

8.4 Appeals Of Fines

A candidate or officeholder, political action committee or political party committee who has been assessed a fine due to a delinquent campaign finance report may seek a waiver or dismissal of all or part of the assessed fine. Said appeal request must be executed and submitted in conformance with the requirements set forth herein or shall be deemed not received and shall be returned to the filer.

A request for an appeal must include: the filer's name, address and telephone number; the name of the candidate, officeholder or committee whose report was delinquent; the report which was due and the reason it was delinquent; the remedy sought by the filer and the reason the filer feels the waiver or dismissal of all or part of the assessed fine should be granted. The appeal request may be filed "in-person", by mail, by e-mail or by facsimile.

Parties petitioning the Board for a hearing on appeals of fines must do so in writing.

NOTE: An appeal of any fine assessed shall not be considered by the Board if the report for which a fine was assessed is not filed by the date the request for an appeal is received at the Board.

In the event the Board schedules a hearing on an appeal request, the filer shall be notified of said hearing via certified and first class mail. The filer is not required to be in attendance at the hearing, but is invited to attend and offer any testimony or evidence for the Board's consideration.

The filer will be informed of the Board's decision on his or her appeal by mailed communication. If the appeal is denied, or if the Board waives a portion, but not the entire amount of the fine, the fine amount, as communicated by the Board in its decision, shall be due and payable at the Board of Elections within fourteen (14) days of the date of the communication. The failure to remit payment within the fourteen (14) day period may result in further action deemed appropriate including, among other things, the reinstatement of any fines that have been waived.

An appeal of the daily fines that is denied by the Board shall result in the accrual of said fines being retroactive to the date upon which said accrual began and continuing up to and including the date payment is received.

[See §17-25-10.1(a)(1)]

No political action committee shall make contributions, including allowable in-kind contributions, to more than one candidate or officeholder, to more than one political action committee, or to more than one political party committee, or to a combination of candidates or officeholders, political action committees and political party committees which in the aggregate exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) within a calendar year. [See §17-25-10.1(a)(1)]

No candidate or officeholder, political action committee or political party committee may accept a contribution or contributions, including allowable in-kind contributions, which in the aggregate exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) within a calendar year from any one individual or political action committee. [See §17-25-10.1(a)(1)]

A political party committee or political party committees may not make a contribution or contributions to a candidate of that political party which in the aggregate exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) within a calendar year. However, there shall be no restriction on the amount of in-kind contributions a political party committee or political party committees may make to a candidate of that political party provided, however that for the purposes of this section only, the cost and preparation and airing of television and/or radio advertisements and the cost of any print advertisements shall not be considered an allowable "in-kind" contribution and shall be subject to the aforementioned aggregate limitation of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00). Notwithstanding the above, the political party committee and the candidate must continue to report such contributions. [See §17-25-10.1(e)]

Notwithstanding the limits specified above, an additional ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) within a calendar year may be contributed by an individual, political party committee or political action committee to a political party committee to be utilized solely for organizational and party building activities but which shall not be used by the political party committee for contributions to candidates for public office. [See §17-25-30]

Additionally, a candidate may make a contribution or contributions in excess of the one thousand dollar ($1,000.00) annual limit to his or her own campaign, and nothing herein shall be construed to restrict the amount of money that a candidate can borrow in his or her own name and, subsequently, contribute or loan to his or her own campaign. [See §17-25-10.1(g)]

9.2.1 Contributions from Dependent Children

A contribution from an individual's "dependent child" shall be deemed a contribution from the individual for purposes of determining whether aggregate contributions exceed either the one hundred dollar ($100.00) threshold for reporting purposes or the one thousand dollar ($1,000.00) maximum for contributions to a single candidate or political action committee or ten thousand dollar ($10,000.00) maximum for contributing to all candidates and political action committees within a calendar year. No dependent child shall contribute an amount which, when added to contributions already made by that child's parent or legal guardian and by other dependent children of that parent or legal guardian, exceed the one thousand dollar ($1,000.00) maximum for contributions to a single candidate or political action committee or exceed the ten thousand dollar ($10,000.00) maximum for contributions to all candidates, political action committees and political party committees within a calendar year. [See R.I.G.L 17-25-10.1(f)]

- "Dependent child" is defined in §36-14-2 as a person's natural child, adopted child or stepchild if such person, during any calendar year, provides over 50% of the child's support during such calendar year.

It shall be the responsibility of the candidate, political action committee or political party committee receiving contributions to ascertain whether any individual contributor is the "dependent child" of another person so as to be able to determine whether such other person is to be chargeable for contributions made by such dependent child. In addition to maintaining records of the name, address and place of employment of all contributors, candidates, political action committees and political party committees should also maintain records indicating a contributor's status as a dependent child.

A contribution to a named candidate made to any political committee authorized by that candidate to accept contributions on his or her behalf shall be considered to be a contribution made to the candidate. Contributions to a candidate by a political committee for another person shall be considered to be contributions by that person. [See R.I.G.L 17-25-10.1 (b)]

Expenditures made by any person in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate or his or her authorized political committees or agents shall be considered contributions to that candidate. [See R.I.G.L 17-25-10.1(c)]

The payment or financing by any person of the dissemination, distribution, republication, in whole or in part, of any broadcast or any written, graphic or other form of campaign materials prepared by the candidate, his campaign committees or their authorized agents shall be considered a contribution to the candidate. [See R.I.G.L 17-25-10.1(d)]

9.4 Transaction Types

There are eight (8) transaction types by which a campaign may receive contributions: Cash, Check, Money Order, Credit/Debit Card, Electronic Pay System, In-Kind, Loan and Other. Each transaction type is discussed below.

9.4.1 Cash

Campaigns may accept cash contributions that do not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) in the aggregate from an individual within a calendar year, and such cash contributions must be delivered directly by the donor to the campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer, or candidate if he or she is appointed as the treasurer or deputy treasurer. The campaign treasurer or deputy treasurer shall maintain records of the name and address of all persons making such cash contributions. Except as provided herein, all other cash contributions are prohibited. [See §17-25-10.1(i)]

9.4.2 Check, Money Order, Credit/Debit Card and via Electronic Pay System

Contributions of funds may be by check, money order, or credit or debit card and may be made over the Internet and via electronic payment systems such as "PayPal", but in each case the original source of funds must be identified [See §17-25-10.1(i)]: provided, however, that candidates may accept cash contributions under the limits and conditions specified in a previous section.

9.4.3 In-Kind

An In-Kind contribution is the monetary value of paid services, or other things of value donated to, or benefiting, any person required to file reports with the Board of Elections. The value of an in-kind contribution is determined by the fair market value or prevailing commercial rate of the goods, services or other thing of value contributed. Similarly, when a person pays for goods, services, or other things of value on a candidate's or committee's behalf, the payment is considered an in-kind contribution to said candidate or committee. Moreover, an expenditure made by any person in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate's campaign is also considered an in-kind contribution to the candidate.

9.4.3.1 Limits On In-Kind Contributions

The value of an allowable in-kind contribution counts towards the aggregate annual contribution limits specified herein. However, there shall be no restriction on the amount of in-kind contributions a political party committee or political party committees may make to a candidate of that political party. [See §17-25-10.1(e)]

9.4.3.2 Donor Required To Notify Recipient Of Value Of In-Kind Contribution

The donor of an in-kind contribution must notify the recipient candidate or committee of the value of said in-kind contribution. However, it is the responsibility of the candidate or committee to make their "best effort" to obtain the correct value of an in-kind contribution.

9.4.4 Loan

A loan shall be considered a contribution of money until it is repaid. There shall be no restriction on the amount of money that a candidate can borrow under his or her own name, and subsequently contribute or loan to his or her own campaign. [See §17-25-10.1(g)]

9.4.5 Other

Other types of transactions by which a campaign may receive or report contributions include Interest Received, Refunds or Rebates, Other Receipts and Aggregate.

9.5 Contribution Types

For the purpose of this section, contribution types include: a contribution from an individual; a contribution from a political action committee or political party committee; aggregate contributions from individuals, political action committees or political party committees; loan proceeds; in-kind contributions from an individual, political action committee or political party committee; interest received; refunds and rebates; other receipts and matching public funds.

Received" (Form CF-3) all contributions received in excess of a total of one hundred dollars ($100.00) from any individual within a calendar year. The schedule shall contain the name, address and place of employment of each person from whom contributions in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) were received within a calendar year, the amount contributed by each person and the date(s) the contribution(s) were received. [See §17-25-11(a)(3)(i)] Each schedule shall be filed by the dates designated on the Board of Elections' Reporting Schedule.

9.5.1a Treasurer's Best Efforts to Obtain Contributor Place of Employment

The treasurer of any candidate, political action committee or political party committee must make his or her best efforts to obtain and maintain the information required by RI campaign finance law with respect to a contributor's place of employment. When the reporting information is incomplete, the treasurer will be in compliance with RI campaign finance law if he or she can demonstrate that "best efforts" were used in trying to obtain and report the needed information. To demonstrate "best efforts", the treasurer must be able to show:

1. The campaign requested the required information in the solicitation materials that prompted the contribution, and
2. The campaign made at least one follow-up request to the contributor within 30 days of receipt of the contribution and the follow-up request must be made in writing. Campaigns must retain records of follow-up requests.

If the contributor does not respond to the follow-up request, but the campaign possesses information in its contributor records, fundraising records or prior reports filed during the same election cycle, then the committee may use that information when disclosing the contribution.

If the requested information is not received until after the contribution has been reported on a "Summary of Campaign Activity" (Form CF-2) and "Schedule of Contributions Received" (Form CF-3) for a reporting period prescribed by the Board, the treasurer must report the information by filing an amended "Schedule of Contributions Received" (Form CF-3) for that same reporting period.
